GAINS FAME Native Son Ring Champ

LLOYD TAHOUNEY —Victoria Times Cut.

Lloyd Tahouney, boxing under the colors of the Esquimalt Boxing Club, punched his way to supremacy in the 112-pound division in the B.C. Silver Gloves championship tournament at the Bay Street Armouries last Saturday night.

The exponent of boxing is a native of Sidney. Until 1940 he and his family resided on First Street. His father, Herb Tahouney, was a fisherman. At the beginning of the Second World War the family moved to Victoria where they are still residing. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Tahouney was Miss Sophie Rowland. The Rowland family were well-known pioneers on Salt Spring Island. The late J. Tahouney of Salt Spring Island, was an uncle of the fighter.

Stalking his opponent and making every punch count, the former local boxer gained the decision over Norm Jorgenson of the Vancouver Burrard Athletic Club. Tahouney, Vancouver Island Silver Boy, was the unanimous choice of the judges as British Columbia Silver Boy. Jorgenson, Vancouver Silver Boy, was named runner-up.

Parade of Champions

The first annual Provincial Silver Gloves tourney, under the joint sponsorship of the Victoria Kinsmen's Club and the Vancouver Island Amateur Boxing Association, was truly a "parade of champions" as youngsters from Vancouver, Fraser Valley and Vancouver Island battled for top honors in their respective divisions.

In producing the most champions, the Esquimalt Boxing Club headed the list with winners in three divisions. Vancouver Eagle Times Athletic Club piled up a total of 18 points to capture the Phillpott trophy. Esquimalt was second with 15 points.

60-lb. Class Popular

Slugging their way into the hearts of the fans were young Frank Copley of North Ward and Frank Deegan of Vancouver. Copley was more aggressive through-

A few years ago he purchased the old Murchison farm and had developed it as a summer home. His funeral took place from the Masonic Temple, New Westminster, on Monday, Mar. 6.

HIS LAST STATE IS WORSE Claimants Take Property From Review

LIKE the man in the Bible beset by devils the last state of the skeleton in the cupboard of The Review is worse than the first.

A list was published recently of the miscellany that had accumulated in the office of The Review. Starting with an ancient skull, the list included many items that could have proved useful to the owner of the head. He had been equipped with many accessories and accoutrements.

Since that time several readers have laid claim to various articles which were credited to the gentleman who had lost his head.

He has lost the means of ploughing his land. The ox yoke has been claimed by a resident of the area who aims to keep it as a souvenir of the days gone by. It was, reputedly, used to break the land when North Saanich was first put under the plough. This claim on the yoke will relieve the headless gentleman of the chore of tilling his fields.

Jackpot Claimed

His offspring will be unprotected against the chill north wind. A red jacket abandoned by a small child on Sidney Day last year, has found its owner. The child has grown and the jacket is now light for her.

His bone hand will be unprotected.

OPEN HOUSE AT SIDNEY SCHOOL

More than 100 parents attended the open house at Sidney elementary school in connection with education week on Tuesday afternoon of this week. The program continued from 1 to 3 o'clock and after parents had studied the work being done by their children, a film was presented acquainting the visitors with modern methods of visual education. Principal Mrs. B. M. Christian was in charge of the program.

Health Unit Report Issued

Large Number Cases of Dental Decay
Are Reported

Report of the Saanich and South Vancouver Island Health Unit for 1949, was recently received at The Review office.

The report deals with the health of the community and concludes with a number of statistics. The picture is good but there are several blots. These are mostly formed of unavoidable diseases.

The unit covers a greater area than in previous years, and has added new staff and equipment. The aims of the unit are, briefly, to attend to the health of residents in the area and to encourage a greater awareness of health and hygiene in the minds of those in the area. Local health committees are formed to assist the locality, but to see it as part of the whole.

The report states that the Sidney Health Committee met twice during the year. It is formed of the following members: Miss R. Simpson, Mrs. O. Thomas, N. MacNaughton, W. P. Turner, R. A. Sansbury and Mrs. K. N. Sparks. The main aim of the committee was to obtain dental service for school children. The difficulty of finding a suitable dentist prevented the plan from being put into action.

School health examinations were carried out in schools under the school boards, Nos. 61, 62 and 63. In these three districts 4,343 children were registered in the 34 schools and 1,844 of them were examined by the health officer. Of the 1,844, 53 per cent appeared to be in excellent health, 41 per cent had minor ailments and six per cent had more serious ailments.

Dental Decay

The record shows that of each thousand children in these schools, 140 had uncorrected dental decay; 50 had defective vision, in nearly all cases this was corrected by glasses; 40 suffered from some form of allergy, asthma being the most common; 17 were handicapped by overweight; 15 were undernourished; five had marked hearing loss; three gave a history of poliomyelitis, most had little or no residual handicap; two had rheumatic heart disease and fewer than one were under treatment for diabetes. Fewer than half of the children referred for treatment in (Continued on Page Ten)

AIR VOYAGE OF DISCOVERY TO FIJI ISLANDS

One of The Review's subscribers residing on Salt Spring Island recently flew with his wife to enjoy a winter holiday visiting the Fiji Islands, in the South Pacific.

At the invitation of this newspaper, a short story on this holiday has been written. The story will appear in serial form, and the first instalment follows:

(By L.S.)

FEW Canadians have sought the Fiji Islands as a holiday spot. These are a long distance away from home—transportation has been slow—their tourist appeal has never been directed to Canada—their tourist season, which is in winter and runs from June to September, coincides with our best summer season when most Canadians want to stay at home and enjoy the beauties of their own country.

Honolulu, with its even semi-tropical climate, has been and

CAPT. HARRY HUGHES

—Victoria Times Cut.

After half a century at sea, Capt. Harry S. Hughes, of Mount Newton Cross Road, has retired at his home. Armed with as great a knowledge of the B.C. coast as any man afloat he is finding his land legs. For the first time since childhood, Capt. Hughes is permanently ashore.

Capt. Hughes' father set the pace which he has followed. His first days at sea were with his father. They sailed to Prince Rupert together in the old days and manned the second ship to enter Prince Rupert Harbor. They reached there the day after the first ship had tied up. The late pioneer coastal skipper put in many years cruising around the coast and with the years that Capt. Hughes has spent in those same waters his family has seen some 70 years sailing up and down the coast.

Capt. Hughes is a native of Digby, N.S. He arrived on the island at the age of seven. Going to sea when he was 15 he has seen no other life but that of a sailor. He sailed for a number of years with the C.P.R. During the First World War the veteran sailor went to Britain and served in the Royal Navy.

Mrs. Frank Stenton, of Sidney, was bereaved by the death of her brother, Leonard Stenton, of Victoria, on Tuesday, March 7.

Mr. Stenton came to Vancouver Island last September. He had suffered ill health for several weeks prior to his passing. He was previously resident in England, and was a native of Leeds, Yorkshire. Mr. Stenton was 47 years of age. Since the age of 11 he has been actively connected with the Salvation Army. He has been a barrister and instructor in that organization.

Ash Calls For Early Start On New Highway

Appeals For Other Saanich Improvements In Challenging Address to Legislature

A strong appeal for immediate government action to improve conditions in his constituency was sounded in the provincial legislature last Friday afternoon by Arthur J. R. Ash, M.L.A. for Saanich.

In his two-hour address Mr. Ash forcibly urged:

- (1) Reforms in the provincial hospital insurance scheme, including its administration by an independent commission similar to the B.C. Power Commission.
- (2) Abolition of the means test for old age pensioners.
- (3) Improved housing for Indians residing in Saanich.
- (4) Immediate construction of the new express highway between Victoria and Patricia Bay airport.
- (5) Elimination of open drains and ditches in North Saanich territory.
- (6) Construction of a modern police station in Sidney.
- (7) An early vote on whether residents of northern parts of Saanich Municipality wish to secede from the remainder of the municipal area.

Makes Out Strong Case

Mr. Ash presented strong argument to support the various programs which he was urging.

The speaker protested vigorously against the government delaying construction of the long-awaited new highway between Victoria and Patricia Bay airport. He declared that the highway had been promised by the government as far back as 1948.

Mr. Ash spoke as follows regarding the highway:

"The time has arrived when I think the government should proceed with this work. The people in the greater Victoria area expect action on this highway and to fulfill the promise made to them in 1948."

"The Patricia Bay airport is the terminus for the Trans-Canada Air Lines and at Sidney we have an important entrance point for tourists coming to this island and a very convenient crossing by way of the Mill Bay Ferry to the Malahat and on up the island Highway."

"Last year a total of 4,390 foreign cars passed through the customs port at Sidney. These cars carried a total of 14,484 passengers. During the same period 1,595 Canadian cars passed through with a total of 5,290 passengers. In addition to this the Trans-Canada Airlines carried a total of 150,000 passengers in and out of the Patricia Bay airport. In both cases the traffic has steadily increased each year."

"I hope the government will important link between Victoria, lose no time in improving this Sidney and the airport."

"I shall expect a statement from the Minister of Public Works just what the government intends to do about it. It may be said that there are more important places to look after first, but that is not good enough. Surely the Greater Victoria area is of importance to the government."

"We, in this district have a very important and vital tourist trade and nothing should hinder that and important industry from coming to the capital of British Columbia. Good roads are something very (Continued on Page Six)

Last Member Of Family Succumbs

Galiano was shocked on Friday, March 3, to hear of the sudden passing in Vancouver of Mrs. Margaret Carolan, wife of Tom Carolan.

Mrs. Carolan was apparently in normal health when she left the island on the previous Saturday for a short visit to Vancouver. She was taken to hospital on Wednesday and passed away on Friday morning.

Her death culminates a series of tragic events in her family. In July last, her two young brothers died from the results of carbon monoxide while working on a car in a closed garage, and her father, Hugh Mattatall, a contractor in Red Deer, Alta., was killed in November when one of his trucks backed into him.

Mrs. Carolan, who was born in Alberta 24 years ago, had lived on the island for the past three years. Besides her husband, she is survived by her step-mother, in Red Deer.

Funeral arrangements at present are incomplete.

VETERANS DISMANTLE SECOND BARRACK HUT

Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans of Canada, Sidney Unit, No. 302, has started demolishing a second hut on the West Camp at Patricia Bay Airport. The new acquisition is Hut 25. The club has already removed Hut 24, a quantity of the material obtained from which has been devoted to the construction of the new club headquarters.

A section of the hut is being dismantled by L. Christian and C. S. Goode, who have taken it over from the veterans.

SEA MONSTERS DO EXIST PHOTO PROVES

G. Littlejohn, retired ship's purser, who resides in Sidney, has been reading recently about the sea monster which inhabits Saanich waters. He called at The Review office this week to display a picture of a sea monster caught some years ago. In other words, sea monsters do actually exist.

Mr. Littlejohn hails from Scotland. He sailed on the east coast of that land before coming to Canada.

In 1908 some Dunbar fishermen caught a "monster" 22 feet, six inches long. Mr. Littlejohn's photograph shows the great fish clearly. The ferocious looking creature was captured quite close to the Scottish shore.

Scientists were baffled by the fish. Mr. Littlejohn recalls. It was given a name and a place of honor in a London museum where it remains to this day.

LEAVES FOR ENGLAND

Tom Flint, proprietor of Barron Motors, Sidney, flew to England on Tuesday, Mar. 7. He left immediately after receiving a cable warning him of the illness of his father, in Stoke-on-Trent. Mr. Flint hopes to be back next week.

Improving

HON. GEO. S. PEARSON

Improvement in the general condition of Hon. Geo. S. Pearson, provincial health and welfare minister and representative of the Gulf Islands in the legislature, is reported from Royal Jubilee hospital. The minister was stricken by illness last Friday and taken to hospital.

Education Minister W. T. Strath is taking over Mr. Pearson's duties as provincial secretary temporarily, while Lands and Forests Minister E. T. Kenney, will serve as minister of health and welfare.

Only a month short of 70 years of age, Mr. Pearson has been ailing for some time but, nevertheless, had insisted on carrying on his heavy dual duties as Provincial Secretary and health and welfare minister.

INSTALLATION CEREMONY

Annual installation meeting of Saanich Chamber of Commerce took place at the Brentwood W.I. Hall on Monday evening at eight o'clock. A delegation consisting of Walter S. Miles, president of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce, and Johnny T. Johnston, vice president of the same body, honored the Saanich Chamber by their presence and officiated at the installation ceremonies.

Those assuming office included President Percy Thorpe, Vice-President Edward Logan, Secretary-Treasurer M. O. Goodman and the executive members.

Retiring President Claude Butler presented a resume of activities during the past two years. He thanked his executive for their co-operation and expressed his wish that the Chamber will continue to operate successfully. A brief address was given by the incoming president and other officers.

Plan Banquet

Business of the organization was discussed and an early executive meeting will be called to plan the annual banquet in April. Refreshments were served during the evening.

GRANTED CITIZENSHIP

THEY WED IN 1904 At Seaside Place Called Blackpool

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norbury of Queen's Avenue, Sidney, marked their 46th wedding anniversary on March 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Norbury are well known in Sidney where they have resided for a number of years. They were married in England, at a "seaside place called Blackpool", on March 3, 1904.

Mr. Norbury is a native of Chalfont, Cheshire, while Mrs. Norbury is from Shropshire. For a year or so they operated a public house in England. Mrs. Norbury found that the lion's share of the duties fell upon her shoulders. They did not like the restrictive hours and the indoor occupation so they decided to come to Canada. In 1907 they arrived in London, Ont.

A Big Job

His first job was on a dairy farm, recalls Mr. Norbury. He was responsible for milking 72 cows, up to three times daily. There were no machines to facilitate the job in those days. It was all hard work, particularly at the height of summer. Later they moved westward and Mr. Norbury took charge of an Ayrshire herd near Winnipeg.

The retired farmer purchased a farm at McAuley, Man., in 1915. Professor E. M. Stralight, who had known him for many years, urged him to come to the coast and take charge of the herd of Jersey cattle at the Saanich Experimental Station. In 1923 he did so. Two years later he left the station and took over the herd at the Glamorgan Farm, then owned by J. S. H. Matson. This was one of the finest herds of Jerseys in the country. Under the care and attention of Mr. Norbury they continued to produce prizes and awards. During this time they also showed good production and food stock.

In 1928 Mr. and Mrs. Norbury and their family moved back to McAuley, taking with them several fine head of cattle. The line of Jerseys coming from his farm was named after the farm, Sunnyvale. There are few herds in western Canada that do not show some Sunnyvale blood in their stock.

Mr. Skafie is a native of Leeds, Yorkshire, England. He was born on Nov. 22, 1876. Mrs. Skafie was born on Oct. 17, 1877, at St. Helen's.

Classification Talks Entertain
Members of Sidney Rotary Club

Rotarian C. T. Overman presented his classification talk at last Wednesday evening's dinner meeting of the Sidney Rotary Club and it sounded like a world cruise. The speaker told of his visits to different countries in Europe, Asia and Africa both in the business world and as a soldier during the Second Great War.

Mr. Overman told of his experiences on the stock exchange in Great Britain and afterwards of his European travels purchasing food commodities in Holland, Belgium, France, Germany, Poland, Lithuania and Switzerland. His firm specialized in canned hams which were imported from Poland. The speaker joined the army as a driver, served in France until his evacuation at the time of Dunkirk as a lance-corporal and was afterwards commissioned. He served in the Middle East until the end of hostilities and was retired as a lieutenant-colonel.

Dissatisfied with black marketing in Britain following the war, he and Mrs. Overman planned to move to Kenya Colony and ended up in Sidney, B.C. They flew the Atlantic with Air

BRITAIN BUILDS SHIPPING

British shipyards at the end of last year had nearly 2,000,000 gross tons of shipping under construction—45 per cent of the total tonnage built throughout the world. Improvement in the supply of materials is indicated by figures of vessels completed during the year—the best since the war: the tonnage commenced—the highest since 1946. Lloyd's Register of Shipbuilding Returns shows that during 1949 the tonnage commenced was 1.2 million gross tons—38 per cent of the world's total. Launchings were 1.3 million tons—40 per cent of the world's total—and completions, also at 1.3 million tons, were equal to 43 per cent of the world's total.

Play Area For Pupils Planned

Through the combined efforts of the fathers of the Saanich School pupils and the perseverance of J. Lott, school principal, a much needed play area for the children is well under way.

With the organization of the Saanich P.T.A. this matter was brought to the attention of the parents and in no time at all Mr. Lott organized a working bee and on that particularly rainy Saturday, a couple of weeks ago, volunteer workers were seen hard at work up to their necks in mud, digging out part of the basement in preparation for laying a cement floor.

This Saturday is the big day, and it is the hope of Mr. Lott that many helpers will be on hand to assist him with the work that will benefit the pupils of the Saanich School.

The Saanichion Community "500" party was held Wednesday evening in the Orange Hall with eight tables in play. Prize winners were Mr. Towers and Mr. Westgate; tombola, J. Stewart. Refreshments were served with Mrs. O. Hawkins and Mrs. Dadds as conveners.

Leon Domanski of Alterio, Alberta, is visiting at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. Farrell, Jr., Simpson Road.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Howe, East Saanich Road, have as house guests, Mrs. J. Hume and children, of Whiteside Avenue, Victoria.

The monthly meeting of the Saanichion Community Club was held Thursday evening in the Orange Hall with president R. Godfrey in the chair. Business matters included a motion to purchase a silver cup to be presented to the winner of competitive games for the Girls' Pee Wee basketball teams. According to a report from Ted Hawkins, adverse weather conditions have hampered the volunteer workers in assisting in the re-building of Iain Wilson's barn. However, with the coming of good weather, Mr. Hawkins hoped that a good turn-out could be expected this week. Films, under the direction of J. Lott brought the meeting to a close.

Mrs. W. Burley, Victoria, who has been confined to the Jubilee hospital for the past three weeks, is convalescing at the home of her sister, brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bickford, East Saanich Road.

The Saanichion Girl's Midget Basketball team journeyed to Cowichan Saturday, and came back with an 18-point lead in the first game of a two-game total points series. Saanichion basketball fans are optimistic as to who is going to win Saturday night at the Agricultural Hall, when the home team will host Cowichan, but regardless of who takes the final honors, Saanichion is justly proud of "their Midgets."

Play At James Island

Saanichion Community Badminton Seniors visited James Island to participate in a recent tournament match, and lost to their hosts in a 7-6 score. Keen competition was evident throughout the evening, and with a 6-6 score, and one game of women's doubles to decide the winner, excitement reigned supreme. But Edna Cavers and Joan Martin nosed out J. Mutrie and G. Nancarrow of Saanichion, in a close match, to take final honors for the Islanders. Delicious refreshments were served to the visitors, and arrangements made for a return match Friday, March 10, in the Agricultural Hall, Saanichion, which promises to be a good match. James Island team: Marlene McNaughton, Joan Martin, Edna Cavers and Mrs. Schulz; Vally Bond, Bill Bond, Joe Matthews, Clive Woodburn, Saanichion; Helen McDonald, Eileen Povey, Joan Mutrie and Gwen Nancarrow; Bilton Park, Hunter Poole, Gordon Hemstreet and Stan Fox.

TRUCK ACCIDENT

Driving a new truck, Francis Reed of Stelly's Cross Road, Saanichion, hit a tree on that same road when his truck went out of control on Monday, March 6. Damage was estimated at $400. The driver was uninjured. The truck had only done 140 miles since new, but the cause of the accident was attributed to a breakdown in the steering mechanism.

Inspector of Credit Unions Addresses Annual Meeting of Peninsula Branch

Directors and members of the Saanich Peninsula Credit Union were warmly congratulated on a very successful year by M. A. Culbert, assistant inspector of Credit Unions for the province of B.C. Mr. Culbert attended the first annual general meeting of the organization at the K.P. Hall, Sidney, on Wednesday, March 1. R. N. Shanks took the chair. It was revealed that the branch has accepted nearly 100 members since it was formed, slightly over a year ago. The members heard reports of the various committees and learned of the financial success of the branch.

Mr. Culbert gave a brief address on the operation and organization of a credit union, with particular reference to the government attitude to credit unions. The provincial legislature has favored the growth of the movement, the members were told, because the service of the union tends to create stability among the people of the province. It takes away many of the financial difficulties that always arise. He emphasized that the movement was in no way a rival to any banking institution.

Usurious Interest
The speaker warned the members that the banks are a necessary complement to the economic system. The credit unions, he said, are aimed more at the financial houses, who can charge usurious rates of interest. He quoted one well-known such undertaking as levying 20 per cent interest on loans advanced.

The inspector advocated that all members should bear in mind that the two major features of a credit union were to promote thrift and to offer loans, where necessary, at a reasonable rate of interest. He also referred to the difficulties that had been experienced by a Canadian chartered bank which offered insurance on all loans, as does the credit union. The bank was obliged to raise its rate of interest to cover the extra expense entailed. He described the "self-endowment" plan as being one of the cheapest forms of insurance, in small amounts, available today. He added that the credit unions were now 102 years old and boasted 15,000,000 members in Canada and United States.

Maurice Connor, treasurer, read the financial report. Over $3,000 had been put out in small loans, the highest individual amount being $500. One $1,000 endowment

Egg Production Up All Over Province

Poultry market report as supplied by the Dominion Marketing Service, Vancouver, follows:

For the first time this year, egg receipts showed an increase in all production areas in B.C., with the lower mainland increasing 4%, Vancouver Island 3% and the interior 7%. With spring-like weather now prevailing and the fact that probably the hatchery requirements are now at the maximum, further increases may be expected. Viewing the above, operators here, who, at the moment, are fairly well stocked, due to extensive carlot buying recently, are watching the supply situation and buying in limited quantities.

Local sales are holding steady, while northern and Alaskan movement continues good.

Prices remain unchanged. Poultry receipts continue very light. There has been a fair quantity offered to dealers, but bad road conditions make it almost impossible for trucks to operate. Freezer stocks are being used quite freely. There are some late turkey flocks still to be marketed and operators are anticipating storing a percentage of these for their summer requirements. Prices are holding steady.

loan had been made to date. A balance of $133.41 was shown on the year's operation. Of this amount, 20 per cent was set aside as reserve. This was the legal requirement.

3% Interest
A small payment was made to the treasurer and assistant treasurer. The remainder was devoted to the paying of a three per cent interest on all savings and $17.07 was set to the refund of loan charges to members. The remaining $5.82 was put towards the education fund.

Election of officers concluded the evening's business. The directorate is made up as follows: president, R. N. Shanks; secretary-treasurer, Maurice Connor; assistant treasurer, A. Alexander; directors, G. Wood, Ed. Logan, A. Alexander, Mr. Siverson, Mrs. Beryl Skinner and W. Baillie; supervisory committee: W. Skinner, J. Lott, N. Shillito; credit committee, E. Bushy, E. Sapsford, D. Butler, M. Connor, G. Wood.

After the close of business the members enjoyed refreshments prepared by Mrs. Sapsford and her assistants.

HONORING OF SOUTH AFRICAN WAR DEAD

Major-General G. R. Pearkes, V.C., Nanaimo representative in the house of commons, put the following question to the house last week:

"I should like to direct a question to the Minister of Veterans Affairs. As today is the 50th anniversary of the battle of Paardeberg, in which the Royal Canadian regiment so distinguished itself, will the minister give consideration to having the names of the 225 Canadian soldiers who lost their lives in the South African war inscribed in a book of remembrance and retained in the peace tower?"

Hon. Milton F. Gregg (minister of veterans affairs): Mr. Speaker, I will give attention to my honorable friend's question."

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS
by Don Graham

Is fear of failure preventing you from realizing some ambition or launching some new project?

That was Howard T.'s trouble. As a mechanic in a garage, he had hopes that someday he would own his own auto repair business. He had the necessary experience and promises of financial backing. But certain obstacles that he would have to overcome always discouraged him. So to this day he has never put his plan into action.

The world is full of Howards — people who never give themselves a fair chance at success because obstacles, which could be overcome by determined effort, held them back.

This is not to say that obstacles should be ignored; it's only common sense to take them into account. But too often we overrate them.

Frequently, too, we exaggerate the probable consequences of failure. Yet Cyrus Field failed three times before he succeeded in spanning the Atlantic with the first cable!

So next time you shrink from tackling some project, step up your "will to win"!

Fear can also serve useful purposes — as, for example, when it prompts us to prepare for old age and emergencies by taking out life insurance. This common-sense step has been taken by more than 4 1/2 million Canadians.

They know...

IT IS NOT MONEY ALONE

More than a million and a half people deal with the Bank of Montreal, and they know that it is not money alone they deal in when they come to us. It goes beyond that. These people have confidence in the Bank; they know that their money is safe with us, and that they will be fairly treated in their business dealings.

We try to keep constantly in mind that the Bank is not primarily an impressive row of figures or an imposing building. We think rather of the Bank as the local manager and his staff, on whom our customers can always call for friendly counsel and service. Our branch-banking system is founded upon this relationship.

A man's relationship with his bank manager is, and should be, a highly personal one. Yet in each of our 59 branches, behind this confidential relationship, there stand the resources and stability of a nation-wide, century-old institution. Thus the strength of the institution is linked with human understanding in the service of the individual.

I believe sincerely that this is the spirit guiding our relations with the public today. Without such a spirit, the Bank could not maintain or justify its place in the economy of this country, nor would we be able to give our best to Canada in the years of great promise which lie ahead.

WORKING WITH CANADIANS IN EVERY WALK OF LIFE SINCE 1817

The Wise Gardener

Notes From Saanichton Experimental Station

A box containing about 30 trees and shrubs carefully packed is on a ship bound for distant Japan. These plants are to be planted in the Canadian Sector of the British Commonwealth War Cemetery near Yokohama. All trees forwarded are native of Canada and have been selected because of their ornamental value and general usefulness. They will serve as an important link between the homeland and that small portion of Japan that we can think of as being Canada.

With this useful purpose being served it is fitting that a number of plants selected should be native of B.C. Having this in mind specimens of Flowering Dogwood (Cornus Nuttallii) have been included along with Arbutus (Arbutus Menziesii), our native Spiraea (Holodiscus discolor aricefolius) and our fine Mock-Orange shrub (Philadelphus Gordonianus) and our Big-Leaved Maple (Acer macrophyllum). Other varieties could have been obtained but these referred to are among the best B.C. can offer.

From other parts of Canada were included specimens of Silver Maple common from Nova Scotia to Lake Huron; the Manitoba or Ash-Leaved Maple, so valuable over a wide section of central and western Canada; the Redbud (Cercis canadensis) a fine small ornamental tree with clusters of rose-pink flowers in May; the Scarlet Oak (Quercus coccinea) whose foliage turns brilliant scarlet in autumn; the Tulip Tree, native of Ontario; the Canadian Elm and the Cottonwood.

Trees of the Sugar Maple or Canoe Birch were not available on this coast at the present time and it is planned to forward these in the autumn. Haste was required in getting these plants away so that they will arrive in Japan before the season is too far advanced for planting.

A request for this shipment of trees was made by E. H. Norman, head of the Canadian Mission at Tokyo through the secretary of state at Ottawa. The Experimental Station at Saanichton has been very happy in helping to make possible this shipment of typically Canadian trees that will provide shade and shelter for Canadian graves in distant Japan.

Poultry

The newly-hatched chick is a delicate little fellow. Born as an orphan when hatched in an incubator, he needs careful attention as compared to those which enjoy the maternal affection of a mother hen. Those who raise incubator-hatched chicks must provide artificially what the mother hen supplies naturally, warmth and protection. The incubator chick born in a temperature of about 100 degrees Fahrenheit must be reared in a warm atmosphere, free from draughts. When first born the young chick is delicate and requires rest, and must have a warm cozy place in which to retire.

The brooder house must be thoroughly warmed up before the chicks are placed in it. The temperature about two inches above the litter on the floor up to the outside edge of the hover should be 90 degrees for the first week. After this it should be reduced according to feathering, weather conditions and the comfort of the chicks. The best guide to follow is the chicks themselves. If they crowd under the hover they are too cold and if they are staying away from the hover and panting they are too hot. The brooder house should be large enough and so regulated that comfortable conditions are provided for the chicks day and night. If the chicks are busy feeding, etc. and can go under the hover and get warm quickly, brooding conditions are ideal. If the chicks have good vitality bred in them there will be little danger of high mortality if the above suggestions are followed.

Urges Precautions

"In the unorganized territory of Saanich, we have deplorable conditions regarding open drains and ditches, and I feel the Minister of Public Works and the Minister of Health should review the whole situation. With the large population (some 30,000) and still increasing, bordering on Victoria, it seems to me that certain precautions should be taken to protect the health of the people," continued Mr. Ash.

"Continual complaints are being made and I hope we will not wait until an epidemic takes place before something is done. Some time ago, the engineer made a report to the deputy minister on conditions in and around the Sidney area, and in that report he stated that conditions there were not good and the odors emanating from open ditches were particularly noticeable in that area.

"Correspondence has passed between representatives of that district and the departments. When they wrote to the Department of Public Works the deputy minister replied it was a matter for the Health Department; when the Health Department was notified they replied that it was a matter for the Public Works Department, and there the matter stands at this moment.

"I hope the ministers will give this matter their attention and recommend some satisfactory solution.

The Police Station

"I wish again to bring to the attention of the government the deplorable condition of the Police Station at Sidney.

"I need not elaborate on the condition of this 'shack', 14 ft. x 20 ft. and built in 1900 by volunteer labor.

"The cells are in such a deplorable state that offenders must be transported to Victoria.

"No privacy whatever exists for the senior constable to interrogate prisoners or carry on other private conversation.

"The court is held once a week in this building and the issuing of drivers' licences, besides many other routine duties, is carried out with great inconvenience to those on duty.

"I have mentioned before that Sidney is becoming more important each year as a port of entry for thousands of tourists and modern building can be constructed to look after the needs of North Saanich."

Pernicious Anemia Cannot Be Cured

DON'T BE MISLED by the quacks and charlatans who claim to cure pernicious anemia. The most contemptible person in the world is the one who will sacrifice public health, comfort, and happiness for his own financial gain. A patient who has pernicious anemia is deficient in red blood cells. New red blood cells can be developed by a process with which your physician is thoroughly familiar. The process is constant and does not effect cure. It does, however, enable the patient to complete a normal span of life. Always consult your physician in time of illness. Then bring his prescription to us to be filled.

Sun Life of Canada Increases Dividends to Policyholders

1949 was a good year for Sun Life. Total benefits paid last year $114 million. Company largest investor in Canadian homes under National Housing Act.

With $18 million—a substantial increase over 1949—allocated for policyholders' dividends to be paid during the current year, the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada enters its 80th year of public service with a promising outlook for 1950. During the year just past, the total amount of life insurance which policyholders purchased from the Sun Life exceeded $372 millions, continuing the unbroken record of selling more new life insurance per annum than any other Canadian life company. Insurance in force with the Sun Life now amounts to $4,107,000,000, an all-time high. Total income of the Company in 1949 was $238,000,000.

The 79th Annual Report of the Sun Life of Canada just issued indicates that benefits paid to Sun Life policyholders and beneficiaries since the Company's first policy was issued in 1871 have now reached $2,240,000,000. Last year alone over $114,000,000 was paid out in benefits. In recent years the Company has given particular attention to providing funds for the construction of homes, and of its total assets which now exceed $1,527,000,000, more than $93 millions is invested in Canadian residential mortgages.

At the Annual Meeting held at the Head Office of the Company in Montreal, the President, Arthur D. Wood, reviewed the remarkable progress of life inkept pace with this increase, today's total in force of $4,187 millions comparing with only $53 millions in force at the beginning of the century. During these 50 years, too, Sun Life policy provisions and privileges have been broadened, available options increased and many new benefits introduced. Even before 1900 the Company was the first to introduce the "unconditional" policy, following later with the popular Sun Life non-medical insurance plan. The Company also issued the first Group Pension policy written anywhere in North America, an epoch-making event in the history of life insurance.

One of the outstanding features of Sun Life operations during 1949 was the pronounced increase in the Company's Group business. Hundreds of thousands of office, factory and other employees in business and industry throughout Canada and the United States are today protected by the generous terms of Sun Life Group Insurance and annuity plans. The Company's experience and service in this particular field is unsurpassed. Today, the importance of Group insurance is recognized by all those concerned with the encouragement and maintenance of good relations between management and labor, and the welfare and social security of the individual employee.

The Sun Life's story for 1949, dress as delivered at the Annual Meeting, is contained in the Report to Policyholders now on the press. A copy will be sent to every policyholder, while others may obtain the Report on request from any of the branch, group or mortgage offices of the Company, or from William C. James, Representative, 2425 All Bay Road, Sidney.

PITBOY TO MANAGER

Any pitboy in Britain with brains and determination now has a reasonable prospect of rising to a managerial position. The National Coal Board have just introduced a comprehensive "Ladder Plan" for technical education for miners which will make this possible. All training will be free of charge and arranged during daytime working hours. The scheme is flexible enough both for miners to take university degrees and for university graduates to acquire practical experience in the pits.

Repatriate is the big man's smart answer to your question. If it comes from a little man, you call it an insult.

MORE ABOUT BLACKPOOL

For many years the Sunnyvale line was shown at all the cattle shows where Jerseys were to be found. With J. B. Acland, chairman of the group committee for the sponsoring body of the 1st Ganges Scout Troop, as master of ceremonies, Salt Spring Island Scouts and Cub Scouts observed Scout Week by holding a Jamboree last Wednesday afternoon in the Mahon Hall.

The program started with the showing of pictures depicting, among others, the 1949 Jamboree at Ottawa, the local Scouts on their way to the capital and activities after reaching their destination. Under the management of Scout Master Archdeacon G. H. Holmes, the Scouts gave a good interpretation of a comedy skit, "Tel-a-vision," in which the parts were taken by Robert Reynolds, Robert Aitkens, Patrick Crofton, Michael Boulger and Bruce Gardner.

Enjoyable Performance

In "The Flag," a delightful little playlet, in costume, produced by Mrs. Elvan Walters, with Ian Foubister representing England, Gilbert Mout, Scotland; Douglas Wagg, Ireland, and Gail Gardner, Canada, the four Cubs cleverly carried the sketch to a successful finale, culminating in the formation of the Union Jack. As the tableau took shape "The Maple Leaf Forever" was sung by eight-year-old Philip Meyer, accompanied by a chorus of Cubs.

The presentation of the Long-Service medal was made by Mr. Acland to Cub Master Elvan Walters in recognition of his 15 years service with the Rovers, Scouts and Cubs both in Vancouver and Lillooet, as well as four years with the Cubs at Ganges. ## Former Ganges Man Wed In New Zealand

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Newnham, of Long Harbor, Salt Spring Island, announce the marriage of their second son, George L. Newnham, to Mary Ellen Jones, of Welcome Bay, Taranaki, New Zealand, which took place recently at the Church of St. John the Baptist, Welcome Bay.

Mr. Newnham was, for some years, resident on Salt Spring Island and is well known to many Islanders. He went to New Zealand in May, 1938, and when the last war started was one of the first to land in Egypt. From there he went to Greece where he experienced all the horrors of that campaign until evacuated by the British Navy.

Fortunately he escaped any serious wounds, but the campaign left him with an eye affliction. Thanks to the splendid medical care of the New Zealand authorities he has, to a large extent, recovered his vision. His many friends will join in wishing him and his bride long life and happiness.

Sun Life Again Foremost Company

Dividends to policyholders of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada are to be increased during 1950. This announcement was made by Arthur B. Wood, president, at the 79th annual meeting in Montreal in which he revealed that the Sun Life had continued to maintain its foremost position, selling more new life insurance in 1949 than any other Canadian company. The total amount of life insurance purchased from the company last year exceeded $372 million, while benefits paid to policyholders and beneficiaries during the period amounted to more than $114 million — a new record. Total benefits paid by the Sun Life since the company's first policy was issued in 1871 stand at $2,240,000,000. The assets of the company are now at an all-time high of $1,527,000,000. In connection with the assets, it is worthy of note that the Sun Life is by far the largest investor in Canadian residential mortgages, with more than $83 million held in provinces from coast to coast.

C.G.S. Estevan
Upon his return home he was with the Canadian Fishing Company for a time. He sailed around the west coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands where the company had a charter. After a year or so with that company he went to the government service and joined the C.G.S. Estevan.

Capt. Hughes has been in that ship ever since. Seven years ago he became master of the Estevan. Up and down the coast from the "line" to Alaska, around all the islands, almost every rock and every inlet, they are all familiar to the retired sailor. Placing and replacing markers; making markers; reducing and eliminating hazards to shipping — that has been his routine.

The captain remarked that there were people all over the coastal area that he knew well. The Estevan was always welcome. In some of the remotest parts it was an extra contact with the outside. In all parts it was at the service of any in trouble or danger. There is a more human aspect to sailing the coastal waters than is contained in the placing of buoys.

Capt. Hughes saw radio grow up. When he first sailed there was no such thing. In the course of time he saw it develop into a standard equipment on large ships and, later, on almost every ship.

Today the veteran skipper is taking his ease. He intends to pursue many unfamiliar pastimes and open new fields of recreation. Capt. and Mrs. Hughes are living at Bannockburn, the pioneer home of the Thompson family. Mrs. Hughes was Miss Thompson prior to her marriage.

Aim high, but don't stop shooting just because you missed the first few shots.

NEW RAIL CHIEF: Donald Gordon, C.M.G., devoted his first hour in office as president of the Canadian National System to a press conference. "We are conducting a public service, and it is essential that the public should be informed of what the railway is doing," he said. "I hope, as soon as circumstances will permit," continued Mr. Gordon, "to go over the system. I want to get to know the men and women who make it tick. The railway is faced with almost every kind of problem one can think of, but it seems to be a first-class working organization and its foundation is sound. My work with the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, perforce, kept me in touch with every phase of our economy, and in that respect my duties will be similar with the transportation system. We must provide a service to every phase of Canadian industry, and make our contribution to the progress of the country."

MORE ABOUT HEALTH REPORT

previous years had had all their defects corrected, noted the report.

An amusing reference is made to an anonymous pint-sized North Saanich school boy. He established himself as a hero on his first day at school, by taking out his glass eye and showing it off to his classmates. A nine-year-old at another school, says the report, was asked if he had any aches or pains. "Only my sister," was the reply. A third youngster was told to lift the other foot after the examination of her one foot. "I can't," she replied. "I'd fall over if I didn't leave one foot down."

Three Saanich schoolchildren had paralytic poliomyelitis in 1949. One has made a good recovery. Two are still at the Solarium.

There were 17 cases of whooping cough as against the five-year average of 85 cases. For the third year the incidence of pinworm infestation in certain Sidney families was followed. There were four families, or 21 individuals who were treated with hexylresorcinol. The results of sanitation alone were almost equal to the results of sanitation plus resorcinol.

Saanich Sewers
The report deplors the defeat of the Saanich sewer by-law. If Saanich had had sewers during 1949 there would have been 171 fewer nuisance calls. The services of the sanitarian would have been available for more constructive purposes. In Saanich, the report continues, the nature of the soil and the density of the population make sewers imperative.

Life at Sea
Speaking of life at sea, Mr. Wilson remarked that the second mate on board is called upon to serve as ship's doctor, when such an officer is not carried. He recalled an incident in Sydney, Australia. The ship was tied up, and a commotion was to be heard on the dockside. He watched the activities of a group of seamen. They were noisy and merry but they did not appear to be causing any trouble. The noise was increased by the addition of a scream. The shrieking persisted, so he called to ascertain the cause. There was a man lying on the ground and he emitted much noise each time his comrades made to lift him. Finally Mr. Wilson went ashore to investigate. He discovered that the man was suffering from a broken leg. The bone was broken in a number of places.

He ordered splints and called for an ambulance. As he walked up the gangway a stoker came along-side and whispered, "My leg's broken as well." He ordered the man to his bunk to sleep off the excess of alcohol that he exhibited. A few minutes later the stoker was back. "My leg's broken," he said. Mr. Wilson told him to show it. It was broken. Despite the somewhat minor fracture, the seaman had walked around for several hours. Mr. Wilson left for Vancouver after the course was over.

Comprehensive Navigation Course For Fishermen Is Concluded

Week's course on navigation concluded on Wednesday evening, March 1, with a final lecture at Sidney school.

The course, under the tutelage of C. C. Wilson, of Vancouver, was sponsored by the Fishermen and Allied Workers' Union, Sidney Local. It was open to all fishermen and operators of boats in the area. Mr. Wilson is from the department of extension at the University of British Columbia. Between 25 and 30 students attended the lectures, which were given each evening for a week. The course was received enthusiastically by the coastal seamen. Most had already a working knowledge of the subject. The course was intended to direct them on to the right track in the use of their maps and instruments. The men who attended were highly appreciative of the instructor's ability to put over his subject.

Mr. Wilson, who is a native of Vancouver, is a holder of his master's ticket. He sails in the summer and teaches in the winter. He had several reminiscences of life at sea, but was happy to be on land. The instructor would prefer to remain ashore and serve as a teacher of navigation all the year round. He expressed his regret that such a course was not possible.

The sailor informed The Review that there were three parts of the world in which he would elect to settle. The first was the Pacific coast of Canada, secondly Scotland and finally the South Island of New Zealand. The latter he cited as good to live on but not to earn one's living. This statement he supported by comparing the living costs, in proportion to the average income to the same circumstances in Canada.
